CYBERBREAK

January 11, 2008

If you're like me and have been stretching that last paycheck down to the dollar, those days are over (for now)!

IT'S PAYDAY!
Tuesday, January 15th!
Thanks Biz!

Join the Admissions Department as they host the January Staff Birthday Party!

Friday, January 18th
3:00 PM
Westmoreland - 2nd Floor

SPELLCHECK, PLEASE!

Times have changed, especially with the development major technological advances in communication. Twenty years ago, the internet was a concept of the future, and now it is imbedded in our everyday lives. Computers have replaced typewriters; email has replaced hand-written letters. How have you changed? Here's a little quiz to keep you thinking and see if the technological changes have gotten to you!

Find the words spelled incorrectly. For more of a challenge, try spelling them correctly!

1) prerogative
2) abcess
3) harrass
4) absence
5) omelet
6) misspelled
7) hors d'ouvre
8) forsee
9) bureaucracy
10) detremental
11) colonel
12) guarantee
13) panicky
14) recind
15) aggrevate
16) ninety
17) fourty
18) transfered
19) catagory
20) wholly

*10 words are spelled incorrectly.

Hold that Thought!

The Staff Suggestion Box is now located by the Westmoreland Security Desk.

Suggestions are welcomed! ☺

WHO SAID IT?

"Compassion, forgiveness, these are the real, ultimate sources of power for peace and success in life."

a) John Lennon
b) Bob Marley
c) Mahatma Ghandi
d) Tenzin Gyatso, HH the 14th Dalai Lama

Last Week's Answer:
Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow
(1807 - 1882)

He was born and raised in Portland, Maine, but spent the last 45 years of his life in Cambridge, Massachusetts. Known for his poetry, he was 1 of 5 members of the Fireside Poets. His famous works include "Paul Revere's Ride," "The Song of Hiawatha," and the 1st American translation of Dante Alighieri's "Divine Comedy". Source Enjoying CyberBreak? Who do you want to see quoted? Have ideas, suggestions, or comments? Share them with Johanna at jgan@swlaw.edu.