CYBERBREAK

November 2, 2007

REMINDER:

Daylight Savings Time!

Don't forget to turn your clocks BACK one hour on Sunday, November 4th!

HOOVER FOOD € CLOTHING DRIVE NOVEMBER 12 - 16, 2007 WESTMORELAND ALCOVE

METRO COMES TO SOUTHWESTERN!

NEED SOMETHING TO DO FOR LUNCH? FIND OUT THE LATEST IN TRANSIT TECHNOLOGY AND DISCUSS THE CHANGES IN LOS ANGELES DUE TO THE NEW TRANSIT-ORIENTED DEVELOPMENTS LIKE THE WILSHIRE/VERMONT STATION.

Wednesday, November 14th 12:30 - 2 pm w611

*Raffles will be Held for Attendees and RidesHare Week participants.

Employee Educational Assistance Reimbursement Program

Get reimbursed for going to school!

Application Deadline for Spring 2008:

friday, flovember 30th

For qualification details, application form, or more information please go to: http://www.swlaw.edu/staffedassistance

You can make a difference!

Do you have any ideas or solutions to help streamline procedures or improve services?

Email breakthrough@swlaw.edu or anonymously to the Staff Suggestion Box located in the W100 Conference Room.

If you have any comments, suggestions, or announcements for CyberBreak, please email them to Johanna by Wednesday to assure it will be included in the next edition.

(Día de los Fieles Difuntos or Día de los Muertos) is a Mexican holiday celebrated on November 1st (All Saints Day) and November 2nd (All Souls Day). Celebrants honor the lives of the deceased and celebrate the continuation of life.

Similar celebrations for the deceased occur throughout the world such as:

Obon (お盆) Festival - Japan Chueseok/Hankawi (한가위,中秋节) - Korea Gai Jatra (Cow Pilgrimage) - Nepal Baron Samedi - Haiti Araw ng mga Patay - Philippines

Source: Wikipedia

WHO Said it?

"Experience is not what happens to a man; it is what a man does with what happens to him."

- a) George Orwell
- b) Aldous Huxley
- c) Martin Luther King, Jr.
- d) John F. Kennedy
- e) Friedrich Nietzsche

Answer in next week's CyberBreak!