

CYBERBREAK

December 14, 2007

2007

Leaving early for the holiday season?

Don't forget on Tuesday, December 18th

the last timesheet for 2007 is due in Administrative Services by 10AM!

Pay Period: December 11th – 25th, 2007
Non-Exempt Staff: 88 Hours

Au revoir 2007

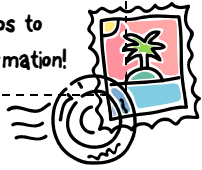

Plan Ahead!

The final pay date for 2007 is Friday, December 21st!

The next pay date will be on Tuesday, January 15th.

USED STAMPS!
Send used postage stamps to Liz Reinhardt in Public Information!

FOR THE TROOPS...

This holiday season, you can send a thank you card to the troops with help from Xerox. The best part is, IT'S FREE! For more information, Click Here.

Holiday Years Gone Past

With less than 1 week left, does your department have what it takes to win the hearts (and votes) of our Blue Ribbon Judges?

All decorations should be in place by the morning of December 20th (Thursday).

Directions: Pick any year (1953, 1988, etc.) and decorate your space accordingly!

You're invited to celebrate
A Musical Holiday!

Thursday, December 20th
12:30 PM

Bullocks Wilshire - 2nd Floor

If you haven't done so, please RSVP to Marcie as soon as possible.

WHO SAID IT? "I can't go back to yesterday - because I was a different person then"

- a) Herman Melville
- b) Pablo Picasso
- c) Lewis Carroll
- d) John Steinbeck

Last Week's Answer:
Coco Chanel

Gabrielle 'Coco' Bonheur Chanel
(1883 - 1971)

She opened her first millinery shop in 1912 and rose to fame as a premier designer in Paris by the 1920s.
She modified fashion, making comfortable suits and dresses, liberating women from the corset. Her signature cardigan jacket was introduced in 1925, and her "little black dress" in 1926.

Click here for Source

Enjoying CyberBreak?

Who do you want to see quoted?

Have ideas, suggestions, or comments?

Share them with Johanna at jgan@swlaw.edu.

