

FIFTH ADDENDUM

(As of August 18, 2008)

2008 FALL ON-CAMPUS INTERVIEW PROGRAM

Southwestern Law School has served the public since 1911 as a nonprofit, nonsectarian educational institution. Southwestern does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, age, religion, national or ethnic origin, sexual orientation, disability, marital status, or prior military service in connection with admission to the school or in the administration of any of its educational, employment, financial aid, scholarship, or student activity programs. Nondiscrimination has been the policy of Southwestern since its founding. The law school also requires employers using its Career Services Office and facilities to abide by these standards and to ensure that no such discrimination occurs in hiring, promotion, or compensation for work assignments.

There is an exception to the above non-discrimination policy as to representatives of the U.S. Department of Defense who discriminate on a basis not permitted by Southwestern's non-discrimination policy or AALS bylaws. This exception is currently made in order to avoid the potential loss of funds that could result if participation in Southwestern's OCIP was denied.

While every effort has been made to provide complete, accurate, and current information, this Guide is not intended to be, and is not, a contract of any kind or description. All information set forth herein is subject to change.

The SIJS (Special Immigrant Juvenile Status) Fellow would provide direct legal services to minors in order to have their caregiver appointed as the legal guardian, and then obtain the requisite orders from the state court to qualify the minor for Special Immigrant Juvenile Status. Thereafter, the Fellow would advocate for the minor's adjustment of status to that of resident with United States Customs and Immigration Service. Finally, the Fellow would engage in administrative advocacy as needed to obtain the various public benefits to which the SIJS status entitles the child. Additionally, the Fellow will undertake educational and outreach efforts to educate the community as to this form of relief, partake in policy and legislative efforts as needed to reform existing immigration and public benefits law, and assist with the supervision of pro bono attorneys and law students in all aspects of this work.

Students must fax resumes to 213.368.6016 or emailed to d.cartagena@kids-alliance.org no later than August 25, 2008.

OREGON DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Oregon DOJ Honors Attorney Program

Ms. Connie Bock

Honors Program

1162 Court Street, NE

Salem, OR 9701-4096

www.doj.state.or.us

3L; Transcript; Writing Sample; Two Letters of Recommendation

The Honors Program is designed to provide recent law school graduates the opportunity to gain public law experience through employment as Assistant Attorneys General with the Oregon Department of Justice. Participants are exposed to a wide range of complex and vital public sector issues.

Under the program, up to five outstanding recent graduates are selected annually for appointment as Assistant Attorneys General upon their admission to the Oregon Bar. The positions are normally two year appointment (one year initial term with reappointment for a second year. Decisions not to reappoint are extremely rare). Honors Attorneys will also be eligible to apply in the second year term for other positions in the department as regular Assistant Attorneys General.

Honors program salaries are intended to be competitive with state judicial clerk salaries and, in appropriate cases, to recognize judicial clerkship or other similar experience. The compensation also includes a generous benefits package.

Depending upon their preferences and available opportunities, Assistant Attorneys General will be assigned responsibilities in the Appellate, General Counsel, Civil Enforcement, Trial, OR Criminal Justice Divisions or the Department of Justice. In the second year, Honors Program participants may then rotate to another division within the department.

Application and Selection Process

Applicants for the Honors Program should possess a superior record of academic or achievement and an interest in public service. Interested persons should submit a cover letter, a detailed resume, a law school transcript, a legal writing sample, and two letters of recommendation from persons acquainted with the applicant's legal work. Applications should be addressed to the contact listed above. For more information about this position go to: www.doj.state.or.us.

Trial Court Law Clerk Hiring

109 State Street

Montpelier, VT 05609-0701

www.vermontjudiciary.org/employment/default.aspx

3L; Cover Letter, Transcript; Official class Rank; Two letters of recommendation; Writing Sample

The Vermont Trial Court Law Clerk position provides law clerk assistance to trial court judges on location throughout Vermont. Law clerks concentrate on research and writing for all judges of the civil, criminal, and family courts of one or more counties, as assigned, and may participate in other projects. Some law clerks are assigned exclusively to Vermont's environmental court.

Law clerks are hired annually for one-year positions beginning each September. Thereafter, second-year and more senior positions are possible. Applications are accepted annually during the September 1 through October 5 period immediately preceding the September in which the clerkship commences. At the time of application, applicants must be admitted to the bar of any state or in the final year of law school. Both students and experienced practitioners are considered desirable applicants.

Hiring for environmental court positions is conducted separately from hiring for all other trial court positions. Applications for both environmental court and other positions, if selected, will be interviewed twice. Such applicants should submit two separate sets of application materials one for each hiring committee.

Minimum Application Materials

- Short cover letter clearly indicating interest in (1) positions focusing on the environmental court only or (2) positions focusing on civil, criminal, and family courts only;
- Resume with e-mail address, which will be relied upon for correspondence;
- Current law school transcript reflecting at least four completed semester, or the equivalent;
- Official class rank or equivalent (if not reported by school, please explain);
- Two letters of recommendation (may be sent separately from other materials; and
- Recent legal writing sample demonstrating aptitude for judicial opinion writing.

Students must apply according to the instructions listed above. DO NOT apply directly to any courts or judges. DO NOT submit a form "Judicial Branch Employment Application."

Materials must be submitted by postal mail, postmarked between September 1 and October 5 to the contact listed above.

A limited number of qualified applicants will be selected for in-person interviews based in court needs and demonstrated merit. Interviews for environmental court positions will be held on Wednesday, November 19, 2008. Interviews for all other positions will be held on Thursday, November 20 and Friday, November 21, 2008.
