

FOURTH ADDENDUM

(As of August 5, 2008)

2008 FALL ON-CAMPUS INTERVIEW PROGRAM

Southwestern Law School has served the public since 1911 as a nonprofit, nonsectarian educational institution. Southwestern does not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, age, religion, national or ethnic origin, sexual orientation, disability, marital status, or prior military service in connection with admission to the school or in the administration of any of its educational, employment, financial aid, scholarship, or student activity programs. Nondiscrimination has been the policy of Southwestern since its founding. The law school also requires employers using its Career Services Office and facilities to abide by these standards and to ensure that no such discrimination occurs in hiring, promotion, or compensation for work assignments.

There is an exception to the above non-discrimination policy as to representatives of the U.S. Department of Defense who discriminate on a basis not permitted by Southwestern's non-discrimination policy or AALS bylaws. This exception is currently made in order to avoid the potential loss of funds that could result if participation in Southwestern's OCIP was denied.

While every effort has been made to provide complete, accurate, and current information, this Guide is not intended to be, and is not, a contract of any kind or description. All information set forth herein is subject to change.
