

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

The following materials should be sent or transmitted electronically to the LL.M. Program at Southwestern's general address indicated below. Applications are not considered complete until all required documents have been received by the LL.M. Program.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

The same application form is used each semester. The application form is available in printed form or online at www.swlaw.edu/applyonline.

APPLICATION FEE

A nonrefundable $60 check or money order (in U.S. funds) made payable to Southwestern Law School must be submitted with the admissions application form or with your Certification Letter if applying online. The canceled check will serve as your receipt.

PERSONAL STATEMENT

The applicant's personal statement should describe the motivation for pursuing an LL.M. degree, as well as relevant life experiences, accomplishments, special interests, personal qualities and career objectives that would be helpful to the Admissions Committee in making its decision. The personal statement should be 2-3 pages in length, typed and double-spaced.

LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION

At least two letters of recommendation should be submitted on behalf of an applicant by persons (other than relatives) who are familiar with the applicant's academic and professional abilities and potential. Letters may be submitted directly to the law school.

CURRENT RESUME/CURRICULUM VITAE

A current resume that lists all academic and professional credentials and work experience is required.

OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPTS

Official, sealed transcripts from all law schools attended (or currently attending) and all colleges and universities from which you received a degree are required. Transcripts should show the degrees earned, dates awarded and class rank. For U.S. law school graduates, if class rank is not included on your transcript, please request that it be sent by the law school registrar.

FOREIGN APPLICANTS

Applicants who completed their undergraduate and/or legal degrees at institutions outside the United States or Canada must also submit the following:

- Test of English Proficiency: Applicants whose primary language is not English must demonstrate English proficiency by achieving a minimum score of 100 on the Next Generation Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), 250 on the computer-based test, or 600 on the paper-based test, or a minimum of 6.5 on the International English Language Testing System (IELTS) exam. More information on TOEFL is available online at www.TOEFL.org and more information on IELTS is available online at www.ielts.org.
- Evaluation of Academic Credentials: The applicant must submit foreign academic records for analysis by a credentials evaluation service (LSAC LL.M. Credential Assembly Service, World Education Services, Inc. or other). A degree equivalency statement with an assessment of gradepoint average based on foreign academic work should be requested. For information on completing this requirement, contact the service providers directly.

The applicant's degree(s) must be from a university accredited in the country in which it is located or the applicant must be admitted to practice before the highest court in that country.

ADMISSION APPLICATION DEADLINES

It is in the applicant's best interest to apply as early as possible; however, the application file for fall admission should be completed no later than April 1 and for spring admission no later than October 1. Applications submitted after the above dates will be considered on an individual basis.

FINANCIAL AID

Admitted students who are U.S. citizens and permanent residents are eligible to apply for federal and private educational loans. Visit www.swlaw.edu/student-services/financial-aid for more specific information and application deadlines. Some private educational lenders offer loans to international students who have a creditworthy cosigner who is a U.S. citizen. International students are encouraged to explore financial aid options from sources in their home countries.
