

Technology Law & Entrepreneurship Program

Southwestern Law School

Los Angeles: A New Tech Center

We are no Silicon Valley, but Silicon Beach is growing rapidly

TechFire just released a report on some of the amazing companies that are important parts of the tech and entrepreneurial communities with strong presences in the L.A. area.

Take a look!

Santa Monica

Venice

Gem

DOLLAR SHAVE CLUB

ChowNow™

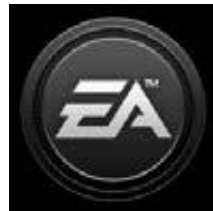

AMPLIFY

TECHFIRE

Playa Vista

Downtown L.A.

HAUTELOOK
— A NORDSTROM COMPANY —

NationBuilder

IMPACT
HUB

wework

GENERAL ASSEMBLY

HYPERLOOP

STYLE SAINT

OBLONG

GRID110

kleverdog
COWORKING

BIXELEXCHANGE
EMERGING TECH CENTER AT THE L.A. AREA CHAMBER

BLANK SPACES
DESIGN
PHOTOGRAPHY

BIZHAUS

MAKER CITY LA  THE REEF
creative labs + studios + coworking

Hollywood, Beverly Hills, West Hollywood, & Century City

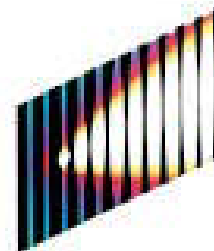

Culver City

CRACKLE

little BLACK BAG

SONY
PICTURES

Me
Undies

[INSIDE.COM]

SOLE /SOCIETY

West L.A. & Westwood

Pasadena

INNOVATE PASADENA

Burbank & Glendale

YAHOO!

And Beyond

SQUARE ENIX

JUSTFAB

plug—in Concentration

- Fulfill the course requirements and receive a designation on your transcript
- Possible honors in concentration designation with a 3.33 or above within the concentration courses
- Help demonstrate your expertise to employers
- 15 Units (8 Core, 7 Elective)

- Core Courses - Students must take at least eight (8) units of Core Courses.
 - Students must take one professional skills course from the following list:
 - Drafting Business Contracts
 - Drafting Technology Agreements
 - Drafting/Negotiating Video Game Agreements
 - IP Licensing: Law & Practice or IP Licensing in the Technology Industry
 - The remaining Core Courses must be from the following list:
 - Copyright Law
 - Cyberlaw
 - Patent Law
 - Representing Entrepreneurs
 - Trademark Law

- Elective Courses - Students must take an additional seven (7) units of Elective Courses from the following list¹ to complete the concentration:
 - Antitrust Law
 - Business Planning
 - Developing Web-Based Startups
 - Entertainment Law
 - Entertainment Law & the Evolving Web
 - Entertainment Law Blog
 - Externship²
 - Information Privacy Law
 - International and Comparative IP Law
 - International Business Transactions
 - Mass Media Law
 - Mergers and Acquisitions: Law, Strategy, and Finance
 - Patent Preparation and Prosecution
 - Strategic Alliances
 - Telecommunications Law and Policy
 - Video Game Agreements
 - Video Game Law
 - *Not all courses are offered every year, and students must meet all course prerequisites and requirements. This Concentration does not change any course prerequisites.
 - ¹With the approval of the Vice Dean and with notice to the faculty, courses may be added or dropped from the Technology Law and Entrepreneurship Concentration elective course list.
 - ²Selected externships that are deemed to be pertinent to technology law and entrepreneurship may be individually approved as counting toward the seven (7) units of elective courses required for the Technology Law and Entrepreneurship concentration.

Externships!

STyLE!!

Students for TechnologY Law and Entrepreneurship

Leadership Opportunities!

Speakers!

Panels!

Field Trips?? Networking??

Clinical Opportunities??

It's up to our entrepreneurs!

Sign Up!

- Fill out the Registrar's form for the concentration
- Write your name and PERMANENT email address on the membership list for STyLE

STyLE Leadership Team

- CEO, COO, CFO, Communications Director, Board Members
- You may only run for one position
- Email me with a one-paragraph campaign statement by Friday
 - 150 words max
 - Elections by Electionbuddy next week – All those who sign up for STyLE will get to vote

Questions???

