

Congratulations to Butler Shaffer after 40 years at Southwestern!

Question: What would you want your students to walk away from your classroom with, if it could only be one thing?

Answer: A willingness to question—without fear of the consequences—everything they have learned, regardless of how sacred such knowledge may be regarded by themselves or others.

