ACCELERATED TWO-YEAR J.D. PROGRAM

Southwestern's SCALE® program is the first ABA-approved two-year J.D. curriculum in the country. SCALE offers a select group of bright, diverse, and highly-motivated students a skills-centered curriculum teaching core legal doctrine and essential lawyering skills. SCALE starts in June and students complete eight 10-12-week periods with a mandatory summer session between the first and second years.

SCALE features include:

- a guaranteed externship
- flexibility to pursue a concentration or create a focus area (entertainment, business, international, public interest, or criminal law)

Note: Visit www.swlaw.edu/scale for detailed information on curricular requirements and focus area requirements.

With faculty and staff that truly support and care for their students, SCALE is one of the best programs in the country.

While a 2-year program may seem daunting, it is very manageable while still allowing room for students to pursue their interest with electives, externships, and the honors programs. Nothing is cut short with SCALE. If you want to become a great attorney in a fraction of the time, SCALE is a choice you won't regret."

Southwestern exceeds my expectations. I feel supported and encouraged to thrive. I'm living a balanced life and having the law school experience of my dreams. I have co-taught a mock law class to minority students at a local high school and encouraged students to consider pursuing a legal career path one day. I'm inspired by the many accomplished alumni and the school's positive impact on the community."

ADDITIONAL PROGRAMS

3+3 B.A./J.D. Degree Program

Cal State University Northridge and Southwestern Law School have established an accelerated multiple-degree program through which students can earn both their Bachelor of Arts and Juris Doctor degrees in six years, rather than the usual seven. CSUN students' first year of law school counts as their fourth undergraduate year.

Benefits:

- Priority registration for three years of undergraduate school
- Mentorship from a CSUN faculty advisor and a Southwestern dean
- Substantial merit-based scholarships available during law school portion

J.D./M.B.A. Degree Programs

- J.D./M.B.A.
- J.D./Executive M.B.A. - for students with at least five years of mid-to senior-level management experience

These joint degree programs offered through the Drucker School of Management and Southwestern Law School enable students to acquire the combination of legal training and management skills that is increasingly in demand in a complex global environment. By allowing students to engage in the institutions' unique curricula, the collaboration reflects the core values of both Drucker and Southwestern, as well as the genuine desire to prepare graduates for fulfilling careers that will make a positive difference in society.

ENTERTAINMENT CONNECTIONS

Film, television, music, theater, advertising, sports, news media, fashion, digital media, and technology generate a steady demand for future lawyers. Taking full advantage of being in the heart of the global entertainment industry, Southwestern established the Donald E. Biederman Entertainment and Media Law Institute in 2000 to help connect our students to these opportunities.

Southwestern is continually recognized as a top school for entertainment and intellectual property law. Our entertainment and media curriculum is the most comprehensive in the United States, bar none!

ACADEMIC SUCCESS/BAR PREP

Southwestern provides a number of Academic Success and Bar Preparation resources designed to help students thrive in law school. Through courses, workshops, and individual counseling, students gain competencies and confidence while honing the skills necessary to succeed in law school, on the bar exam, and in practice.

Bison Boot Camp helps students bridge the gap between undergraduate and legal studies and is free to entering students. #GoBison

DEAN'S FELLOWS PROGRAM

Dean's Fellows are upper-division students serving as teaching assistants for the Academic Success and Bar Preparation Office. They are hand-picked based on their academic success and ability to individually guide new students through their first year of law school.

THE WRITING CENTER

The Writing Center welcomes students at any stage of writing—from brainstorming to polishing. Faculty provide individualized feedback and advice and conduct workshops on writing composition, citation, and grammar. The Center assists students with specific assignments such as legal memos, briefs, seminar papers, clinical work, externship assignments, law review or journal notes, cover letters, and writing samples.

BAR PREPARATION

Southwestern's innovative Bar Readiness Curriculum ensures students are well prepared for the rigors of the bar exam. As students near graduation and through bar preparation after graduation, our extensive Bison Bar Pass programming supports students with workshops and access to a vast collection of bar study materials. Students receive individual attention including customized study schedules, feedback on written practice assignments, coaching with a bar prep expert, and mock bar exam opportunities.

Professor D'Italia is very effective with her methods and is a great asset to Southwestern in terms of preparing students for the bar and communicating realistic expectations."

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

Some of the most rewarding hours in law school are those spent applying what you have learned in your classes to a real-world environment. These valuable and practical hands-on experiences are provided through an abundant variety of externships, public interest opportunities, practica, and clinics.

EXTERNSHIP PROGRAM

Externships give students the opportunity to apply what they learn in the classroom to real cases and issues in a wide variety of supervised placements, including paid positions. Southwestern students participate in approximately 350 externships each year—in the public as well as the private sector. About three-quarters of our students complete at least one externship, and more than a quarter complete two. Part-time students who work can take advantage of limited-commitment or remote externships to accommodate their schedules.

PUBLIC SERVICE PROGRAM

In partnership with public interest firms and government agencies, students have the opportunity to apply practical lawyering skills through service and pro bono initiatives sponsored by the Public Service Program. Almost immediately after joining Southwestern, students have opportunities to engage in direct legal services, advocacy, and community education in a wide variety of settings ensuring equal access to justice for all communities.

JUDGE HARRY PREGERSON PUBLIC SERVICE FELLOWSHIPS

Launched in 2020, the Pregerson Fellowship is Southwestern's premier summer funding program for students who intend to dedicate their legal careers to working on behalf of underrepresented and underserved communities. Sponsored by the Rodan Family Foundation in honor of the late Judge Harry Pregerson, the fellowship award includes a boot camp with specialized training, career coaching, and an annual recognition event.

PRACTICA

Southwestern's Amicus Project Practicum and Immigration Appeals Practicum allow students to gain invaluable educational experiences through real-life practice, under the close supervision of faculty and practitioners.

LEGAL CLINICS

Clinic students develop as professionals and learn the importance of access to justice. Closely supervised, students strategize and execute an array of legal matters while maintaining client confidentiality, civility, and a duty to the court. Students gain practical lawyering skills while providing pro bono representation to community members with limited access to the justice system.

APPELLATE LITIGATION CLINIC

Students work with a professor in litigating a pro bono appeal in the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, up to and including oral argument before the court.

CHILDREN’S RIGHTS CLINIC

Students represent low-income children in school discipline proceedings or children with disabilities in special education proceedings and work with community groups to advocate for equitable educational opportunities.

COMMUNITY LAWYERING CLINIC

Students staff the legal clinic at California State University, Northridge, provide representation in immigration matters, conduct community presentations, and engage in policy advocacy.

ENTERTAINMENT AND THE ARTS LEGAL CLINIC*

HFPA

Students provide production business and legal affairs services on independent documentary and feature films under the supervision of faculty.

FAMILY LAW CLINIC

Students help protect victims of domestic violence, improve the well-being of children in poverty, empower people in need, and ensure meaningful access to the courts.

IMMIGRATION LAW CLINIC

Students represent children and adults in immigration matters where clients have been abused, neglected or abandoned, or have been victims of a crime.

STREET LAW CLINIC

Students teach at-risk teenagers about their rights and provide legal information and resources to help them successfully transition to independent living.

STUDENT-LED CLINICS

Student-led clinics include the Los Angeles County Small Claims Court Clinic and The Volunteer Income Tax Assistance Clinic. These two clinics do not include a classroom component.

YOUTH OFFENDER PAROLE CLINIC

Law students represent clients in specialized parole hearings for individuals convicted of serious offenses when they were under the age of 23.

The clinic is generously supported by The Hollywood Foreign Press Association.
The clinic will not be offered during the 2020-2021 academic year.*

RELATIONSHIPS THAT LAST A LIFETIME

Student Life and Housing

Encompassing nearly two city blocks, Southwestern's campus includes the extraordinary Bullocks Wilshire landmark, elegant dining facilities, indoor and outdoor student lounges, the second-largest California academic law library, three state-of-the-art courtrooms, and a 10,000 square-foot fitness center.

Southwestern's on-campus housing, The Residences at 7th, is move-in ready and includes:

- Full energy star kitchen
- In-unit washer and dryer
- 42" high definition television
- Basic cable and hard-wired and wireless internet
- Air conditioning system, heating, and ventilation
- 24-hour security officer on premises

PEER MENTOR PROGRAM

Peer mentors help students navigate their first year of law school by directing them to academic and social resources and helping each student create a great law school experience.

STUDENT BAR ASSOCIATION

The Student Bar Association promotes student interests, provides extracurricular activities for the student body throughout the year, and encourages community service.

WELLNESS PROGRAMS

Southwestern presents wellness events throughout the year, including stress-management and fitness programs. The Dean of Students Office and on-campus licensed psychotherapist are also available to counsel students who have personal issues that may affect their academic success or general well-being.

ADVOCACY TRACKS

IN THE FIRST YEAR
(TRIAL PRACTICE, APPELLATE, OR NEGOTIATION)

TRIAL ADVOCACY HONORS PROGRAM

Southwestern's Trial Advocacy Honors Program (TAHP) is ideal for developing the skills necessary to excel in any litigation practice area. TAHP members (or advocates) learn to perform confidently in a mock trial atmosphere by examining witnesses, presenting opening statements and closing arguments, and mastering the rules of evidence.

MOOT COURT HONORS PROGRAM

The Moot Court Honors Program helps students hone their research, writing, and advocacy skills. Students conduct legal research on hypothetical appeals, draft appellate court briefs, and present oral arguments before panels of justices in competitions across the nation.

NEGOTIATION HONORS PROGRAM

Negotiation Honors Program (NHP) students compete against law schools across the country. Most recently, a NHP team competed in the ABA National Negotiation Competition and was named the National Champion by a unanimous vote. NHP is ideal for students interested in litigation, entertainment, business, or almost any practice area.

Journals

SOUTHWESTERN LAW REVIEW

Students ranked in the top 10%, as well as students in the top 30% who excel in the annual Write-On Competition, are invited to participate in the Law Review. Recent volumes have examined the preemption of generic drug claims, a socio-legal view of the wrongful conviction process, religious liberty in a secular age, and civil discovery and social networks. Law Review-sponsored symposia have explored prosecuting women, class stratification in contemporary global societies, and 40 years of LGBTQ+ legal activism.

SOUTHWESTERN JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

Law Journal complements the law school's extensive course offerings and faculty expertise in international and comparative law. Students compete in the Write-On Competition to earn a place on the Law Journal staff. Recent volumes have examined future trends in international law, immigration and human rights, and international crime. Law Journal-sponsored symposia have explored such subjects as the future of children in international law, transnational litigation and civil procedure, and the global struggle for women's equality.

THE JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL MEDIA AND ENTERTAINMENT LAW (JIMEL)

This journal is published by Southwestern's Biederman Entertainment and Media Law Institute in association with the American Bar Association's Forums on Communications Law and the Entertainment and Sports Industries. The JIMEL Board of Editors includes prominent legal practitioners and scholars. Students can apply to serve as Student Editors and assist with the publication of journal issues covering topics such as online privacy, criminal defamation, and judicial interpretations of art.

Diversity Awards

At Southwestern, we deeply value diversity, and we have the trailblazers, the student community, and the external recognition to prove it. The law school has received numerous awards for its emphasis on diversity from a variety of organizations. Among the most recent are:

- The American Bar Association's Law Students Division, Dean Henry J. Ramsey Jr. Diversity Award
- California State Bar Organizational Diversity Award - only law school to receive the honor
- Higher Education Excellence in Diversity (HEED) Award from INSIGHT Into Diversity - only law school to receive the award 7 years in a row
- preLaw Magazine's Top 25 for all 3 categories of best law schools for Asians, Hispanics, and African-Americans
- Top 25 Law Schools by Hispanic Outlook in Higher Education - for Hispanic enrollment and degrees awarded

Brian Panish '84

Mr. Panish has obtained more than 250 verdicts and settlements exceeding $1 million, more than 75 verdicts exceeding $10 million, and more verdicts exceeding $50 million than any other California attorney. He has served as a plaintiffs' counsel in numerous mass torts and major disaster cases, including train crashes, pharmaceuticals, and defective product cases.

Hon. Deborah Brazil '96

"Teaching Trial Advocacy allows me to show students that they have many skills, aside from legal knowledge, that will help them succeed in the practice of law. It is exciting to teach trial advocacy skills by challenging students to refine the communication skills they use in daily life and then apply them to a transactional or litigation setting."

Hon. Robert G. Chu '05

Prior to taking the bench in Fall 2018, Judge Chu served as a deputy public defender and supervising deputy public defender at the Los Angeles County Public Defender's Office.

"Southwestern's Trial Advocacy Honors Program prepared me to deal with real-world courtroom scenarios and gave me confidence as I stepped into the courtroom for the first time."

CAREER DEVELOPMENT

Students are introduced to the Career Services Office in their first semester and subsequently participate in:

- individualized career counseling and planning
- informational seminars and skill-building workshops on interviewing techniques and resumé and cover letter drafting
- panel presentations on a wide range of practice areas
- various recruitment activities
- events designed to help build a network of contacts and employment prospects

Recruitment platforms include OCI (on-campus interview programs), the Fall Firm Reception, and the Public Interest/Public Sector Career Day. Students have year-round access to an extensive listing of current job openings via Symplicity, as well as innovative career-building programs and resources. Active employers include law firms and business organizations; local, state, and federal government agencies; local and national public interest organizations; and local, state, and federal judiciaries.

Innovative career-building programs and resources available to Southwestern students and recent graduates include the following opportunities:

- Public Service Graduate Program — providing selected new graduates with short-term employment experience in public service while awaiting bar results
- Los Angeles Incubator Consortium — providing selected new Southwestern attorneys with office space, mentorships, and training geared toward effective solo practice management, with a pro bono component representing modest-means clients

Financial Aid

Southwestern Law School offers various forms of financial aid including scholarships, loans, and work-study. Financial aid counselors help students design a financial aid plan that meets their needs and allows them to focus on their law school education.

Southwestern Law School is an approved institution for veterans' benefits. While the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs determines eligibility, we participate in programs for our active duty, veterans, spouses, and dependents, and we are happy to be your liaison between the VA and Southwestern. We are proud to participate in the Veteran Affairs' Yellow Ribbon program.

TIPS FOR NAVIGATING THE FINANCIAL AID PROCESS AT SOUTHWESTERN

- ① Don't wait to be admitted before you complete your FAFSA—APPLY NOW, it's FREE. The official deadline is June 1st.
- ② The FAFSA (www.studentaid.gov) is the only required application. Available October 1st.
- ③ Southwestern's federal school code is G01295 (G zero 1295).
