

B.R.I.D.G.E.

Building Resources in Inclusion and Diversity to Generate Excellence

Bison B.R.I.D.G.E. programs equip students with essential tools for navigating through, and thriving in the law school environment. All students (especially first-gen) are welcome and encouraged to participate.

The Bison B.R.I.D.G.E. Series

Presented by: Dean of Students and Diversity Affairs

WEDNESDAY
SEPT 16 2020
5–6 p.m.

Learning to be Coachable: Navigating Academic, Professional, and Social Circles

Building your personal and professional network starts now. Learn why connecting with faculty, alumni, and your student colleagues is so important.

WEDNESDAY
OCT 7 2020
5–6 p.m.

First in Your Family to Attend Law School, Now What?

You belong here! Claim your space and don't succumb to Imposter Syndrome. Hear from those who know.

WEDNESDAY
OCT 28 2020
5–6 p.m.

It's a Marathon, Not a Sprint: Understanding Law School Assessments and Grading

We walk you through the realities of grades, status, and class ranking.