

Declaration of Intention to Fulfill the Concentration in Labor and Employment Law

The following declaration constitutes your enrollment in this concentration and will be placed in your official student records.

Name: _____ Student ID Number: _____

Curricular Requirements

To obtain the Concentration in Labor and Employment Law, students must take at least 15 units of Core and Elective courses. Students who complete the requirements for the Concentration will receive a "Concentration in Labor and Employment Law" designation on their transcript. A student with at least 6 graded units of Core and Elective courses, and a Concentration GPA of 3.33 or higher will receive a "Concentration in Labor and Employment Law with Honors" designation on their transcript.

The Concentration GPA will be calculated at the time of graduation. Every graded course a student has taken from the Core and Elective course listing will be included in the Concentration GPA and weighted in accordance with the number of units assigned to that course.

Not all courses are offered every year, and students must meet all course prerequisites and requirements. This Concentration does not change any course prerequisites.

Core Courses

To satisfy the Core course requirement, students must complete the following: (1) at least three designated Fundamental Core courses, totaling a minimum of 6 units; and (2) at least one designated Experiential Core course, totaling a minimum of 2 units.

Elective Courses

To the extent that the required 15 units for the Concentration are not satisfied by a student taking additional Core courses beyond the required units, students must satisfy the Concentration's required units through designated Elective courses.

To get an active list of Core and Elective courses please check the Southwestern Website at <https://www.swlaw.edu/curriculum/concentrations-and-customizations>.
