

Jacquelyn Petzold

Jacquelyn Petzold is the LSSSE Research Analyst. In this role, she creates reports for law schools, analyzes and publishes insights using LSSSE data, and works with outside partners who use LSSSE survey results for research purposes. She is passionate about providing law schools with useful, actionable data to increase equity and reduce barriers in order to allow law students to reach their full potential. Jacquelyn earned a master of library science and a Ph.D. in biology, both from Indiana University.