EXPERIENCE

Southwestern Law School

Clinical Professor and Director of the Immigration Law Clinic, July 2008 to present

Director of Clinical Programs, July 2022 to present

Created and developed the Immigration Law Clinic; co-created the Immigration Appellate Practicum.

Teach clinic seminar on immigration law including U nonimmigrant status (U Visa), U-Based Adjustment of Status and Special Immigrant Juvenile Status (SIJS), interviewing and counseling, and lawyering skills. Supervise students on cases.

Represent survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault and other violent crimes in their U Visa petitions and U-based adjustment of status applications; represent children who have been abused, neglected or abandoned in juvenile court proceedings to obtain SIJS Orders and before the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services in SIJS and adjustment of status applications. Established collaboration with San Bernardino and Riverside County to represent foster children in their SIJS matters.

Served as co-counsel in class action lawsuit that successfully challenged an unlawful government policy denying Special Immigrant Juvenile Status to foster children, including obtaining a preliminary injunction enjoining the government from denying SIJS cases and from initiating removal against SIJS petitioners based on the policy.

Served as steering committee member of the End SIJS Backlog coalition, a nationwide coalition working to propose solutions caused by the SIJS visa backlog. This included advocating for amendments to the Immigration and Nationality Act and agency regulations and other policy changes to mitigate the harmful effects of the visa backlog on children. Drafted language for legislation; met with legislative staff; worked with academic coalition to advocate for executive action by the Biden Administration.

Provide technical assistance to attorneys and advocates regarding SIJS and U Visa; engage in local and statewide advocacy regarding immigration options for survivors of crime; coordinate advocacy efforts with law enforcement agencies on U Visa certification policies and procedures.

Co-organize annual LA VAWA Network U Certifier meeting for non-profit attorneys and law enforcement representatives to collaborate to improve U-certification process for survivors of domestic violence and other crimes; served as LA VAWA Network liaison to U Certifier coordinators of the Los Angeles Police Department and the Los Angeles Sheriff's Department.

Public Counsel

Staff Attorney, Children's Rights Project, 1997 to 2005

Directing Attorney, Children's Rights Project, 2005 to 2007

Represented children and caretakers in probate and dependency courts. Represented children in immigration matters, including Special Immigrant Juvenile Status, Violence Against Women Act, and U Visa interim relief cases. Provided technical support, training and workshops to lawyers and social service providers who work with children and youth; trained and supervised law student interns and pro bono attorneys on a range of children's rights casework; presenter at Annual Partnership for Children & Families Conference. Provided extensive outreach and education to youth and parents on immigration and higher education issues. Organized youth testimony and lobbied legislators in support of California Higher Education Bill for immigrant students (AB 540). Represented youth in civil gang injunction case. Worked with Executive Director and Development Director on fundraising efforts; drafted successful grant applications for creation of new projects.
